

Copper Road

Sticke Alt

IBU: 30 ABV: 6.2

A beer style that dates back to before refrigeration, an Altbier is typically cool fermented and then cool lagged. Made with plenty of Munich malts, the taste is greatly influenced by the yeast – creating a light and clean mouthfeel with an aromatic finish. While an Altbier in general is an amber hybrid, our Copper Road is copper in color, hop accented and clean tasting. A true relic!
